

COL Chadwick W. Clark is the Director of the Army Irregular Warfare Fusion Cell (AIWFC), Mission Command Center of Excellence (MCCOE), at the Combined Arms Center in Ft Leavenworth, KS. The AIWFC integrates and collaborates information exchange and analysis for irregular warfare (IW) activities in order to advocate DOTMLPF solutions addressing IW threats. IWFC synchronizes and assists in the development of IW and Countering Irregular Threats (CIT) enterprises to support a coherent Army strategy that accounts for building partner capacity, stability operations and the integration of unconventional warfare and counterterrorism.

Colonel Clark's prior assignments and deployments include, most recently, Director of the Counterinsurgency Training Center – Afghanistan, Commandant of Joint and Combined Darulaman Base in Kabul, and Deputy Commander of the Combined Training Advisory Group – Police in NATO Training Mission in Afghanistan. Prior to arriving in Afghanistan he was the Director of the Army Security Force Assistance Proponent Office at the Army Counterinsurgency Center, Ft Leavenworth, KS. He was a Theater Observer for Operation Enduring Freedom-Philippines where he also served as the Deputy Commander, J-3 and Chief of Staff. While again assigned at Ft Leavenworth, KS he was a Special Operations Force Advisor to the Combined Arms Center Commander, and Deputy Director of the Special Operations Force Cell. While assigned to Joint Special Operations Command (JSOC) he was the Chief of Plans at the Office of Military Support, the Operations Officer for JIATF-Afghanistan in Bagram, Chief of Plans for J-3 Advanced Force Operations, the Advanced Force Operations Plans Officer for Iraq, Afghanistan and Thailand. While serving at 1st SFOD-Delta, he was the Commander of two assault troops, a reconnaissance troop, Deputy Commander for a Sabre Squadron, and unit operations officer where he had numerous worldwide deployments. While assigned to 1st BN, 1st Special Forces Group he served as the commander of an Operational Detachment Alpha and commander of the Regional Survey Team with operational deployments to the Korea, China, Mongolia, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Cambodia, Thailand and Taiwan. Prior to these assignments he served in numerous assignments in the Light, Air-Assault, Airborne and Mechanized Infantry where he deployed as a platoon leader to Operation Just Cause, Panama '89.

Colonel Clark graduated from Wake Forest University with a Bachelor's Degree in Physics in '89. He attended Benedictine College where he received a Master's in Business and Accounting in '02. He attended the School for Advanced Military Studies where he received a Master's degree in Military Arts and Sciences in '03. He attended Kansas State University where he received a Doctorate of Education for studying the creativity and cognitive development of adults in '08. He graduated with honors and was inducted into Phi Kappa Phi honor society for outstanding academic achievement and noteworthy contribution to the field of education.